RESOURCES

100 Views of Climate Change - Website for climate-change education and outreach - Co-organizers SueEllen Campbell and John Caldarazzo currently serve as communication trainers for the DISCCRS Symposia - <http://changingclimates.colostate.edu>

This site was recently reorganized and includes annotations and links to videos, podcasts, books, articles, essays, and websites that convey high-quality information in clear and appealing ways to non-specialist adults, including college-level students, their teachers, and the interested public. The range is multidisciplinary, ranging from climate science to ecology, agriculture to ethics, communication to policy, economics to energy.

Australian Climate Commission: The Angry Summer - Report on the extreme weather of the 2012-2013 summer and the influence of climate change on such events - March 4, 2013 - <http://climatecommission.gov.au/report/the-angry-summer/>
